

IN MEMORIAM: DANIEL BOONE, FAIA (December 4, 1913- December 25, 2006)

Past President Daniel Boone, FAIA passed away December 25, 2006 in Abilene, TX. Boone served as president of NCARB for the 1972 fiscal year after first being elected to the Board of Directors as treasurer in 1966. He served on the Texas state board from 1960 to 1967. He also served on various NCARB committees including multiple terms on the Committee on Regional Structure, the Committee on Documents, the Committee on Finance, the Interprofessional Committee, and the International Relations Committee.

Born in Waco, TX in 1913, Boone graduated from University of Texas at Austin with a degree in architecture. He joined the US Army in 1943 and served in the Engineering Battalion in Europe in World War II.

Boone and William A. Pope established an architectural firm in 1956, later known as Boone Pope Wheeler. His firm was responsible for many prominent buildings throughout West Texas, including the Taylor County Coliseum, Abilene City Hall, Abilene Civic Center and several schools buildings. He retired in 1988 after over forty years in the profession.

Besides NCARB, Boone was active in the Texas Society of Architects and represented Texas on the Board of Directors of the American Institute of Architects and was named a Fellow in 1968. He received the highest award given by the Texas Society of Architects, the Pitts Award, for a life time of distinguished leadership and dedication in architecture and community in 1968. DC

Council Celebrates Staff Milestone Anniversaries

At the end of calendar year 2006, four NCARB staff members were honored for reaching milestone anniversaries. Quality Assurance Manager Susan Benoit was recognized for her 25th year with the Council. Lenore M. Lucey, FAIA, celebrated 10 years with the Council. As NCARB's executive vice president, Lucey has overseen an expansion of services within all Council directorates.

Roeneka Randall, a senior member of the Council Records staff, also celebrated an even decade at NCARB. Rounding out the group was Charles Morgan, a senior evaluator in the Records Evaluations department, who was feted for his five year anniversary. Congratulations to all! DC

NCARB Past President Honored for Longstanding Contributions to the Profession

In late fall 2006, AIA New Mexico awarded its Silver Medal for Lifetime Achievement to former NCARB President C. Robert Campbell, FAIA (2002-2003). Campbell's long and distinguished career includes serving as the regional director of the Western Council of Architectural Registration Boards (WCARB/Region 6), as chair of the New Mexico Board of Examiners for Architects, and as president of the National Architectural Accrediting Board (NAAB).

In 2001, Campbell was the first recipient of the New Mexico Architects Medal for Leadership, Ethics, and Mentoring, an honor bestowed upon him by AIA New Mexico. He also received his state board's award of distinction for service to the profession of architecture as well as the distinguished alumni award from the University of New Mexico School of Architecture and Planning. DC
